

TEAM
PARADOX

EggP.

Well now look what you've gone and done. How the heck did this happen? An entire album? From a fan-adventure? Absurd! Unheard of!

Really though, I think I can speak for all of us on the team when I say that none of us could ever have imagined Team Paradox getting to where it is today. I've done my fair share of RPs over the years and coming on board with this, I expected little different. A fun RP with fun characters in a fun setting. By all means it looked like it would be a great ol' time, but little more than that.

But there was something different about this one. Underneath the fancy visuals, a narrative was beginning to form. The team was brought together by the mutual attraction to the stunning story that was assembling itself before us. We planned, we schemed, and Team Paradox drew us in further.

And then you showed up. Silent at first, we continued on mostly unaware of your presence, only noticing it through our thread's unusually high view count. A few of you bravely began to step forward and join in the discussions and the floodgates were open. With the ice thoroughly broken, you showed up in numbers that, if I may continue to speak for the group in this little monologue, baffled and amazed us. And then fan-art happened. And then fan-music happened. Honestly, it never ceases to amaze me how far Team Paradox has come, and I am fairly certain that that is mostly thanks to you.

So, as I wrap up this little blurb, I would like to deeply thank you all for reading, watching and listening. It is unquestionable that we have the best fans of any MSPFA by far, and then some. Your steadfast devotion to our humble story continues to make me smile and strive harder to ensure you get what you came for. As I said before, I have no doubt that Team Paradox is where it is today thanks to the motivation you all provide. So many thanks to all of you, our fans. Thank you for the opportunity to work on something as awesome as Team Paradox.

To those of you who have taken the time to make fanart of Team Paradox, I would like to thank you greatly for this. Nothing thrills me more than seeing artwork of our trolls, and my fanart folder is growing preposterously large. So many thanks to you all for being a constant beacon of awesomeness brightening up my days. A super special shout out to Esabelle, who made the gorgeous cover art for the album, along with a vast swath of other fantastic arts for us. Stay classy!

Again on the more specific side, I would like to extend my great appreciation to Crazy-8 and Sadochist, who created the phenomenal tracks Distortion, Crazed Royal and Aliesh's Lullaby, and Hollow and Pure, respectively. I'm just going to take a time out for a moment from writing this to fondly regard how awful the punctuation in that last sentence was and hope the point still got through. Moving on. Being a musician myself, I can appreciate the immense amount of work that goes into creating a song, and here are these two who are consistently churning out more awesome tunes to grace our humble thread. So many thanks to both of you for gracing this album with your unique styles.

Finally, I would like to thank the rest of the team. Red Pen, blacksheepDaydreamer, Beep, Metaflare and Tribor, without any one of them the team would simply not be complete. Each brings dynamic and unique elements to the table to help put together this awesome story. I just wanted to say what a phenomenal pleasure it has been working with each and every one of you on Team Paradox over the last year, and I look forward to continuing to do so.

So, a Team Paradox album?? That is awesome!!

Man, I'm so excited about this coming out! After all we've done, this is probably one of the few (and best) things I've been waiting for! I'm so glad we could compile all of our music for you!

I didn't really think T.P. was going to get off the ground like it did, but MAN am I glad it did. It's so fun being able to interact with everyone! It's made everything raise up to a whole new level, and it's great!

And so here it is: our gift to you! Thanks for being so supportive everyone! We hope you'll keep supporting us in our crazy endeavours!

BAA

When we first started writing music for Team Paradox, it was without much of a goal; a hodgepodge of different and disconnected songs kind of like the comic itself. But as the comic grew and the six of us started working together, the music started to become more cohesive too. Certain leitmotifs stuck with certain characters, and started showing up all over the place! I know as the story goes on, the music will continue to develop and become more complex and interconnected. At this point it tells the story just as much as the words and pictures.

蛇

Ahahahah well I have no idea what to say. I like the music but I don't have any actual opinions about it, and when it comes to TP I don't tend to think all that deeply.

~Beep

Man, who thought that one day a small RP group such as us would get such a large following? I mean hell, we got an album now! Let it be known that I value music over any other kind of anything, so the fact that we have an album makes me feel like a kid going to Disneyland for the first time. Thank you, readers, for supporting us! And thank you, rest of Team Paradox, for letting me be a part of your group despite my lack of talents! I hope we last long enough for our next album!

~Metaflare

Ohmygoshohmygosh we have an ALBUM! Also, I just realized that Team Paradox kinda sounds like Time Paradox. How crazy is that?

~Tribor

This album has been stupidly fun to put together and I hope you all enjoy it as much as I have. I expended most of my thoughtful commentary in the intro thing I wrote, so I guess I'll just spout some silly information here. If there's one thing I'm upset about regarding the album, is its length. It fell just short of 56 minutes which, as that is the team's designated session number, would be pretty much the coolest thing. Oh well, next time maybe. Gotta get back to song writing I suppose!

So I again give huge thanks to you all for the colossal support you've given us. Seriously, what's the deal with all these awesome fans anyway? Is there anything we do that's not falling down these awesome fans?

We have all the awesome fans.

All of them.

EP

Team Paradox belongs to Red Pen, blacksheepDaydreamer, Beep, Metaflare, Tribor and mediokreKarapase, but you already knew that!

MSPA and Homestuck belong to Andrew Hussie, a 7 foot tall Adonis among men with the lips of an angel.

Sburban Jungle, which Sburban Meltdown is a remix of, belongs to Michael Guy Bowman, who is a pretty cool guy who writes much better music than we do.

Distortion, Aliesh's Lullaby and Crazy Royal belong to Crazy-8.

Pure and Hollow belong to Sadochist.

Album cover arts belongs to Esabelle Ryngin.

Aliesh's heart belongs to Tronno.

And everything else is up for grabs!

Except for Got Tiger. No one can grab Got Tiger.
